The 1st House

The 1st House describes Shirley, her self-expression and vitality. It is her physical appearance and the way others see her and interact with her. The 1st House cusp is, in most cases, the Ascendant or Rising Sign of her chart and indicates her primary motivation in life. The house placement of her 1st House ruler shows the areas of life that are of primary importance to her. Also, planets in her 1st House influence how Shirley presents herself to the world.

Ascendant in Sagittarius

Shirley's primary motivation in life is to attain power and recognition. She has a strong need for a restriction-free environment, with room for movement and self-expression. She loves nature, the great outdoors and adventurous situations. She has an open, friendly and frank personality, but can occasionally be opinionated, moralistic and tactless. A true seeker of wisdom and knowledge, Shirley ranges far and wide geographically and intellectually. Higher education and international travel appeal to her. Most likely she will pursue both of these.

The outcome of this house is determined by the placement of its ruler.

1st House Cusp Ruler, Jupiter, in 5th House

Shirley realises her primary motivation in life through expressing her creativity. She may be involved with the entertainment sectors, theatre or sports. Love affairs and sex are important to her. Life has to be fun, even if she is innately serious.

Aspects to Ascendant

Ascendant Square Mars (7°28' A)

A strong character, she expresses an assertive and, occasionally, forceful personality towards others in the environment. Her manner is direct and frank. She is ambitious for recognition and achieves successes through her own efforts and self-motivation. She is a good organiser and likes being in charge of situations. Giving orders or instructions to others comes naturally to her. She faces life's battles head-on and is rarely daunted by much at all. Negatively, she can be pushy, argumentative and prepared to resort to bullying tactics to get her own way. Also, a tendency to rush into things without considering the consequences can place her in awkward situations. Patience isn't one of her strongest traits.

Ascendant Trine Uranus (0°10' S)

Variety is the spice of life as far as she is concerned. She does not like being stuck in any situation or place for very long; consequently she will have many changes of environment and acquaintances. She has a magnetic personality and other people are attracted to her unconventionality and 'unique take' on things. Her outlooks are modern and progressive and she is right up to speed with whatever's happening in the world.

Saturn in 1st House

She is naturally prudent and careful, with good self-control and self-discipline. Her early life may have been difficult, with hardships or limitations to overcome. Yet, she has the power to achieve positions of prominence and responsibility in life through sheer hard work and perseverance. At times, she can be too serious and given to bouts of discontentment and gloominess. She tends not to suffer fools easily.

Saturn in Sagittarius

Shirley is serious about philosophy, religion and higher education. She desires to be recognised as an authority in a field of higher learning. At times, progress in life can seem frustratingly slow; it sometimes feels as if she is 'driving with the hand brake on'. Negatively, she may find it difficult to manage anger and irritability. There is a risk of adopting a harsh outlook or of becoming resentful, vengeful and bitter. At approximately seven-year intervals, she is forced to contend with restrictions and periods of low physical energy.

Saturn Trine Jupiter (2°12' S)

Shirley has good common sense, a responsible attitude and wisdom gained through life experience. Successes are likely in business, financial matters and academic work. She is hard working and industrious, but also smart enough to know when to cut back and consolidate. She has the experience to recognise a good deal when she sees it and the patience to let it mature in its own time. Honest and straightforward in her dealings with others, she earns their trust and respect. She is even-tempered, reliable and fair when making decisions or judgements.

Saturn Square Midheaven (1°05' A)

Shirley is ambitious for professional success and she will work hard to achieve her goals; however her career path will not be free of difficulties and obstacles. At times, she will feel the odds are stacked against her and that others get preference over her from those in power. A parent may disapprove of her chosen career, or she may feel that she is unable to live up to their expectations. The key to this aspect is to clarify what her aspirations are and to live her life according to her own standards. There can be difficulties in the home or with family members.
